Thank you for being amazing

On behalf of the thousands of people we support each year, I'd like to say a big thank you to Jayne and other members of the Glen Parva Parish Council for supporting Breast Cancer Care. We really appreciate the £1,000.00 that you raised for us following your open garden event.

Please pass on my heartfelt thanks to everyone who took part and helped make your fundraising such a success. We really appreciate all the time and effort you put into it, and for choosing to support us.

The money will be put to very good use. Last year, we helped more women than ever before facing the brutal reality of breast cancer. Our specialist nurses, local services and emotional support network meant that when just getting through the day seemed like an impossible task, we were here to help.

And we'll do the same again this year. Because every day more families wake up to the fear and disruption breast cancer brings. And whether it's a mum at the school gate, a neighbor, colleague or someone close, we'll be there to help them find a way through one the most difficult challenges they'll ever face.

Thank you again for helping us be there. We couldn't do it without you.
