

REMEMBRANCE SERVICE – 9 NOVEMBER 2014

The Parish Council held its annual Remembrance Service at Glen Parva War Memorial Hall on Sunday 9th November which was well attended by the local community.

Immediately following the Remembrance Service members of the local community observed the Council Vice Chairman, Mr Stan Sidorowicz, planting a John Downey tree in the Memorial Garden to commemorate the centenary of World War 1. A poppy wreath was laid at the base of the tree.

In addition, the Parish Council presented commemorative book marks to the children at Glen Hills Primary School at a special school assembly on 7 November 2014. Further book marks were also available at the Remembrance Service.

Thank you to everyone who supported the event.

